14 The Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, Section 3

established, defined, made, issued, imposed or assessed, entered into and instituted under this Act.

3. Definitions - In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context.-

(a) in the case of land or building which is in the occupation of a tenant, the gross annual rent at which the land or building has actually been let:

Provided that in the event of increase in the rent, the Committee may make corresponding increase in the annual value :

Provided further that where the land or building has been let by the owner to any of his relations, and the Committee is of the opinion that the rent fixed does not represent the true rent, the rent fixed under the agreement of lease shall not be taken into consideration and the annual value shall be determined in accordance with the principles contained in clause (b);

(b) in the case of land or building which is occupied by the owner, the annual value shall be five per cent on the sum obtained by adding the present market value of the land and estimated cost of erecting the building less ten per cent depreciation :

Provided that in the calculation of annual value of any land and building, no account shall be taken of the furniture or machinery thereon ;

(c) in the case of any land on which no building has been erected but on which a building can be erected, and on any land on which a building is in the process of erection, the annual value shall be fixed at five per cent of the estimated market value of such land ;

(d) in the case of any land on which no building has been erected but on which a building can be erected, or which is partially built and is being used by erecting tents, temporary structures for the purpose of accommodating marriage parties, circus shows or for any entertainment purposes or such other purpose as may be specified in this behalf by the Committee with the previous sanction of the State government the annual value shall be twenty per cent of the estimated market value of such land;

Note: Section 3(1) of the Act as amended by Punjab Act 11 of 1994 has been struck down in the case of Model Town Residents Association v. State of Punjab 2002(2) RCR(Civil) 248(P&H)(DB). The unamended section is been reproduced below;

(1) "Annual value" means

(a) in the case of land, "the gross annual rent at which it may reasonably be expected to let from year to year" provided that in the case of land assessed to land revenue or of which the land revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed or assigned, the annual value shall if, the State Government so direct, be deemed to be double the aggregate of the following amount, namely :

i) The amount of the land revenue for the time being assessed on the land,

1. Substituted by Punjab Amending Act 11 of 1994.

whether such assessment is leviable or not; or when the land revenue has been wholly or in part compounded for or redeemed, the amount which, but for such composition, or redemption would have been leviable; and

- ii) When the improvement of the land due to canal irrigation has been excluded from account in assessing the land revenue the amount of owner's rate or water advantage rate or other rate imposed in respect of such improvement;
- (b) In the case of any house or building, the gross annual rent at which such house or building, together with its appurtenances and any furniture that may be let for use or enjoyment forthwith, may reasonably be expected to let from year to year subject to the following deductions :
- i) such deduction not exceeding 20 per cent of the gross annual rent as the committee in each particular case may consider a reasonable allowance on account of the furniture let therewith;
 - ii) a deduction of 10 percent for the cost of repairs and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the building in a state to command such gross annual rent. The deduction under sub-clause shall be calculated on the balance of the gross annual rent after the deduction (if any) under sub-clause (i);
 - iii) where the land is let with a building, such deduction not exceeding 20 percent of the gross annual rent as the committee in each particular case may consider reasonable on account of the actual expenditure, if any, annually incurred by the owner on the upkeep of the land in a state to command such gross annual rent;

Explanation-I. - For the purpose of this clause, it is immaterial whether the house or building, and the furniture and the land let for use or enjoyment therewith, are let by the same contract or by different contracts and if by different contracts whether such contracts are made simultaneously or at different times.

Explanation-II. - The term "gross annual value" shall not include any tax payable by the owner in respect of which the owner and tenant have agreed that it shall be paid by the tenant.

- (c) in the case of any house building, the gross annual rent of which cannot be determined under clause (b), 5 per cent on the sum obtained by adding the estimated present cost of erecting the building, less such amount as the committee may deem reasonable to be deducted on account of depreciation (if any) to the estimated market value of the site and any land attached to the house or building;

Provided that -

- (b) designation of the property, either by name or by number sufficient for identification;
- (c) the names of the owner and occupier, if known;
- (d) the annual value¹; and
- (e) the amount of the tax assessed thereon by the committee.

64. Publication and completion of assessment list :- When the assessment list has been completed, the committee shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the list or a copy thereof may be inspected and every person claiming to be either owner or occupier of property included in the list and any authorised agent of such person shall be at liberty to inspect the list and to make extracts therefrom without charge.

65. Public notice of time fixed for revising assessment list :- (1) The committee shall at the time of the publication of such assessment list give public notice of a time, not less than one month thereafter, when it will proceed to revise the valuation and assessment; and in all cases in which any property is for the first time assessed, or the assessment thereof is increased, it shall also give notice thereof to the owner or occupier of the property.

(2) All objections to the valuation and assessment shall be made in writing before the time fixed in the notice, or orally or in writing at that time.

66. Settlement of lists:-²(1) After the objections have been enquired into and the persons making them have been allowed an opportunity of being heard either in person or by authorised agents, as they may think fit, and the revision of the valuation and assessments has been completed, the amendments made in the list shall be authenticated by the signatures of atleast two members of the committee, who shall at the same time certify that no valid objection has been made to the evaluation and assessment contained in the list, except in the cases in which amendments have been entered therein and subject to such amendments as may thereafter be duly made, the tax so assessed shall be deemed to be the tax for the year commencing on the first day of April of the year in which notice was issued under section 64 or section 65 of the Act :

Provided that this date will not be earlier to the date on which the building came into existence.]

(2) The list when amended under this section shall be deposited in the committee's office and shall there be open during office hours to all owners or occupiers of property comprised therein or the authorised agents of such persons, and a public notice that it is so open shall forthwith be published.

67. Further amendments of Assessment list:- (1) The committee may at any time amend the list by inserting the name of any person whose name ought to have been or ought to be inserted, or by inserting any property which ought to have been or ought to be inserted, or by altering the assessment on any property which has been erroneously valued or assessed through fraud, accident or mistake, whether on the part of the committee or of the assessee, or in the case of tax payable by the occupier by a change in the tenancy, after giving notice to any person affected by the amendment, of a time, not less than one month from the date of service at which the amendment is to be made.

(2) Any person interested in any such amendment may tender his objection to the committee in writing before the time, fixed in the notice or orally or in writing at that time, and shall be allowed an opportunity of being heard in support of the same in person or by authorized agent, as he may think fit.

²[68. Preparation of new assessment list:- (1) Where the assessment of land or building has been made on the basis of the annual value as specified in clause (i) of section 3, the assessment list will be valid for a period of five years and after the expiry of the period of five years, the annual value may be determined at the option of the owner either in accordance with the method specified in sub- clause (b) of clause (i) of section 3 or by increasing it by ten per cent of the annual value already fixed.

1. Sub section (3) Added by Amending Act 11 of 1994

2. Section fully Substituted by Amending Act 11 of 1994

(2) In the case of land or building which is occupied by the tenant, the annual value may be revised when revision in the rent is made :

Provided that where no revision in rent is made and a period of five years has elapsed since the date of the previous assessment, the annual value may be enhanced for reasons to be recorded in writing and after hearing the landlord.]

¹[68-A. Power to amend assessment list in certain cases.- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, where the prescribed authority is satisfied that any property has been erroneously valued or assessed through fraud, accident or mistake, whether on the part of the committee or of the assessee, it may, after giving to the assessee an opportunity of being heard and after making such enquiry as it may deem fit pass an order amending the assessment already made and fixing the amount of tax payable for that property and on the issue of such an order the assessment list then in force shall, subject to the order, if any, passed in appeal, be deemed to have been amended accordingly with effect from first day of January, or first day of April, or first day of July, or first day of October, next following the month in which the order is passed.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order of the prescribed authority may, within a period of thirty days of the date of communication to him of the order, file an appeal to State Government which shall decide the appeal after giving to the appellant an opportunity of being heard.]

General Provisions

69. Tax not invalid for defect of form:- No assessment and no charge of demand of any tax made under the authority of this Act shall be impeached or affected by reason of any mistake in the name, residence, place of business or occupation of any person liable to pay the tax, or in the description of any property or thing liable to the tax, or of any mistake in the amount of assessment or tax, or by reason of any clerical error or other defect of form; and it shall be enough in any such tax on property or any assessment of value for the purpose of any such tax if the property taxed or assessed is so described as to be generally known; and it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier thereof.

70. Power of the Committee in regard to taxes :- (1) A committee may exempt, in whole or in part, for any period not exceeding one year from the payment of any such tax, any person who by reason of poverty may in its opinion be unable to pay the same, and may renew such exemption as often as may be necessary.

(2) A committee, by a resolution passed at a special meeting and confirmed by the State Government, may -

- (a) provide that all or any persons may be allowed to compound for taxes imposed under sub-clauses (c), (d) and (e) of clause (1) and under clauses (2) and (3)] of section 61;
- (b) abolish, suspend or reduce in amount any tax imposed under the foregoing sections; or

1. Inserted by Punjab Act 8 of 1974, section 7.

- (c) exempt in whole or in part from the payment of any such tax, any person or class of persons or any property or description of property.

71. Powers of the State Government in regard to taxes :- (1) The State Government may by order exempt in whole or in part from the payment of any such tax any person or class of persons or any property description of property.

If at any time it appears to the State Government on complaint made or otherwise, that any tax imposed under the foregoing sections is unfair in its incidence or that the levy thereof or of any part thereof is injurious to the interests of the general public, it may require the committee to take within a specified period measures to remove the objection : and, if within that period the requirement is not complied with to the satisfaction of the State Government the State Government may by notification suspend the levy of the tax or of such part thereof until the objection has been removed.

72. Remission of tax on unoccupied immovable property:- (1) When any property assessed to a tax under [sub-clause(a) of clause (1) of section 61,] which is payable by the year or by instalments, has remained unoccupied and unproductive of rent throughout the year or the period in respect of which any instalment is payable, the committee shall remit the amount of the tax or of the instalment, as the case may be :

Provided that no such remission shall be granted unless, notice in writing of the circumstances under which it is claimed has been given to the committee within the first month after the expiry of the period in respect of which it is so claimed.

(2) When any such property as aforesaid -

(a) has not been occupied or productive of rent for any period of not less than sixty consecutive days, or

(b) consists of separate tenements, one or more of which has or have not been occupied or productive of rent for any such period as aforesaid; or

(c) is wholly or in greater part demolished or destroyed by fire or otherwise; the committee may remit such portion (if any) of the tax or instalment as it may think equitable.

(3) The burden of proving the facts entitling any person to claim relief under this section shall lie upon him.

(4) For the purposes of this section neither the presence of a care-taker nor the mere retention in an otherwise unoccupied dwelling house of the furniture habitually used in it shall constitute occupation of the house.

(5) For the purposes of this section a house shall be deemed to be productive of rent if let to a tenant who has a continuing right of occupation thereof, whether it is actually occupied by such tenant or not.

²[(6) The enquiry necessary for a decision whether any relief shall be granted under

2. Sub-section (6) has been added for the Municipalities to which the Punjab Municipal (Executive Officer)

this section shall be held by the Executive Officer who shall make such recommendation to the committee as he may deem proper :

Provided that the committee shall not grant any remission of tax unless such remission is recommended by the Executive Officer.]

73. Duty of furnishing true information regarding liability to municipal taxation:- (1) Every person shall on the demand of an officer duly authorised by the committee in this behalf furnish such information as may be necessary in order to ascertain whether such person is liable to pay any municipal tax; and every hotel or lodging house keeper or secretary of a residential club shall also on demand made as aforesaid furnish a list of all persons residing in such hotel, lodging-house or club.

(2) If any person so called upon to furnish such information omits to so or furnishes information which is untrue, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

¹[(3) It would be obligatory for the owner to inform the committee about rent being charged from the tenant and also about the increase in the rent by filing a statement in the manner prescribed.

(4) In the event of the owner not giving the information as required under sub-section (3), the owner shall be liable to pay a penalty which may extend to the amount of the tax payable on land or building under sub-section (1) of section 61 of this Act.]

74. Notice to be given to the committee of all transfers of title of person primarily liable to payment of property tax :- (1) whenever the title to or over any building or land of any person primarily liable for the payment of property taxes on such property is transferred the transferor ²[and the transferee] shall within three months of the registration of the deed of transfer if it be registered, or if it be not registered within three months of its execution, or if no instrument be executed of the actual transfer give notice in writing of such transfer to the committee.

(2) Every person primarily liable for the payment of a tax on any property, who transfers his title to or over such property, without giving notice of such transfer to the committee as aforesaid, shall, in addition to any other liability which he incurs through such neglect, continue liable for the payment of all such taxes from time to time payable in respect of the said property until he gives such notice, or until the transfer shall have been recorded in the committee's books.

(3) Wherever the title to or over any building or land has developed upon any person by inheritance, the heir shall within three months of the date of the death of the former owner give notice in writing of such inheritance to the committee.

(4) But nothing in this section shall be held to diminish the liability of the transferee or heir for the said taxes or to affect the prior claim of the committee for the recovery of the taxes due thereupon.

³[(5) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (3) shall, in ad-

Act, 1931, applies. See Item No. 6.

1. Sub section (3) and (4) Added by Amending Act 11 of 1994

dition to any other penalty which he incurs through such neglect, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupee; and, in the case of a continuing breach, with a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.]

75. Power of entry for the purposes of valuation or taxation :- The committee may authorize any person:-

- (a) after giving twenty-four hours' notice to the occupier, or, if there be no occupier, to the owner, of any building or land, at any time between sunrise and sunset, to enter, inspect and measure any building for the purpose of valuation;
- (b) to enter and inspect any stable, coach-house or other place wherein therefore is reason to believe that there is any vehicle or animal liable to taxation under this Act or for which a licence has not been duly taken out.

76. Power to examine article liable to octroi:- Every person bringing or receiving with the octroi ¹[or terminal] limits of any municipality any article on which octroi or ²[terminal tax] is payable shall when required by an officer duly ³[authorized by the State Government or the Committee] in this behalf and so far as may be necessary for ascertaining the amount of tax chargeable:-

- (a) permit that officer to inspect, examine, weigh and otherwise deal with the article, and
- (b) communicate to that officer any information and exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of like nature which he may possess relating to the article.

77. Power to search where octroi is leviable:- (1) If any person, bringing or receiving conveyance or package within the octroi or ⁴[terminal tax] limits of a municipality on which octroi or ⁵[terminal tax] is or is believed to be leviable, shall refuse, on the demand of an officer ⁶[authorized by the State Government or the committee] in this behalf, to permit the officer to inspect, weigh or otherwise examine the contents of the conveyance or package for the purpose of ascertaining whether it contains any articles in respect of which octroi or ⁷[terminal tax] is payable or shall refuse to communicate to the officer any information and exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of a like nature which he may possess relating to the article, or with the intention of defrauding the committee or a lessee under section 83 shall communicate any such information which is false or exhibit any such bill, invoice or document of a like nature which is false, forged or fraudulent he shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

(2) Any such person may demand that the conveyance or package or both as the case

²[(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1) in case of non-payment of any octroi on demand, the officer referred to in section 76 may seize any article on which the octroi is chargeable to satisfy the demand.

(4) The committee or an officer authorised by it in this behalf may after the lapse of five days from the seizure and after the issue of proclamation fixing the time and place of sale, cause any property so seized, or so much thereof as may be necessary to be sold by auction to satisfy the demand including the amount of penalty with the expenses occasioned by the seizure custody and sale thereof, unless the demand including the amount of penalty and expenses are in the meantime paid:

Provided that by order of the officer authorised by the committee in this behalf, articles of a perishable nature which cannot be kept for five days without serious risk of damage may be sold after the lapse of such shorter time as he may, having regard to the nature of the articles, think proper]

78. Power to fix octroi or terminal tax limits and penalty for evasion of octroi or terminal tax:- If ³[animals or articles] passing the octroi or ⁴[terminal tax] boundary of municipality are liable to the payment of octroi ⁵[terminal tax] then every person who ⁶[-causes or abets the introduction of or himself introduces or attempts to introduce within the said octroi ⁷[or ⁸[terminal tax] boundary, any such ⁹[animals or articles] upon which payment of the octroi ¹⁰[or terminal tax] due on such introduction has neither been made nor tendered, shall be punishable with fine which may extend either to ¹¹[twenty] times the value of such octroi or ¹²[terminal tax] or to fifty rupees, whichever may be greater.

tax or any toll or tax shall be established for the contracting parties, the committee may fix limits under section 188 so as to include so much of the area controlled by the said contracting parties as it may deem necessary, and shall have the powers of collecting such toll or tax or octroi or terminal tax on animals or articles brought within the such limits, and the provisions of this Act for the assessment and collection of such tax or toll or octroi or terminal tax shall apply in the same way as if the said limits were wholly comprised in the area of the municipality.

(2) The total of the proceeds of such taxes or tolls made, in the joint area of the municipality and Cantonment¹ [---] or notified area and the cost thereby incurred shall be apportioned between the municipal fund and the fund subject to the control of the Cantonment Authority² [---] or notified area in such proportion as shall have been determined by the agreement.

³ 78-B. Taxation on articles exported:- When terminal tax is leviable on animals or articles conveyed out of the terminal tax limits the provisions of sections 76, 77, 78 and 78-A shall be deemed, so far as may be, to apply in respect of the animals or articles so conveyed.

79. Taxes when payable:- Subject to provisions of sections 62(7) and (8) and 66 any tax imposed under this chapter and payable periodically shall be payable on such dates and in such instalments (if any) as the committee, with the previous sanction of the Deputy Commissioner may from time to time direct.

80. Recovery of taxes payable by owner :- (1) When any sum is due on account of a tax payable under this Act in respect of any property by the owner thereof the committee shall cause a bill for the amount, stating the property and the period for which the charge is made to be delivered to the person able to pay the same.

(2) If the bill be not paid within ten days from the delivery thereof the committee may cause a notice of demand to be served on the person liable to pay the same, and if he does within seven days from the service of the notice, pay the sum due, with any fee leviable for the notice, or show sufficient cause for non-payment the sum due with the fee shall be deemed to be an arrears of tax.

¹[for terminal tax] or toll may be leased by the committee, with the previous sanction of the ²[Deputy Commissioner] for any period not exceeding one year ; and the lessee and all persons employed by him in the management and collection of the octroi ³[or terminal tax] or toll shall in respect thereof.-

- (a) be bound by any orders made by the committee for their guidance;
- (b) have such powers exercisable by officers of a committee under this Act, as the committee may, from time to time; confer upon them; and
- (c) be entitled to the same remedies and be subject to the same responsibilities as if they were employed by the committee for the management and collection of the octroi ⁴[or terminal tax] or toll.

84. Appeals against Taxation :- (1) An appeal against the assessment or levy of any or against the refusal to refund any tax under this Act shall lie to the Deputy Commissioner or to such other officer as may be empowered by the State Government in this behalf :

Provided that, when the ⁵[Deputy Commissioner] or such other officer as aforesaid is, or was when the tax was imposed, a member of the committee, the appeal shall lie to the State Government.

(2) If, on the hearing of an appeal under the section, any question as to the liability to, or the principle of assessment of, a tax arises on which the officer hearing the appeal entertains reasonable doubt, he may, either of his own motion or on the application of any person interested, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer the statement with his own opinion on the point for the decision of the ⁶[High Court.]

(3) On a reference being made under sub-section (2), the subsequent proceedings in this case shall be, as nearly as may be, in conformity with the rules relating to references to the High Court contained in section 113 and Order XLVI of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(4) In every appeal the costs shall be in the discretion of the officer deciding the appeal.

(5) Costs awarded under this section in to the Committee shall be recoverable by the committee as though they were arrears of a tax due from the appellant.

(6) If the committee fail to pay any costs awarded to an appellant within ten days after the date of the order for payment thereof, the officer awarding the costs may order the person having the custody of the balance of the municipal fund to pay the amount.

prescribed by section 66 or section 68, or after the date of any final order under section 61, as the case may be and no appeal shall lie in respect of any other tax unless it is preferred within one month from the time when the demand for the tax is made:

Provided that an appeal may be admitted after the expiration of the period prescribed therefor by this section if the appellant satisfied the officer before whom the appeal is preferred that he had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal within that period.

(2) No appeal shall be entertained unless the appellant has paid all ¹[--] municipal taxes due from him to the committee upto the date of such appeal.

86. Taxation not to be questioned except under this Act:- (1) No objection shall be taken to any valuation or assessment, nor shall the liability of any person to be assessed or taxed be questioned, in any other manner or by any other authority than is provided in this Act.

(2) No refund of any tax shall be claimable by any person otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules thereunder.

CHAPTER VI

Municipal Police

87. Police Establishment:- (1) Every committee shall, unless relieved of this obligation by the State Government, maintain a sufficient police establishment for police requirements within municipal limits and for the performance of the duties imposed on it by this Act.

(2) The establishment maintained under sub-section (1) shall consist either of a body of part of watchmen or of the general police force under the State Government with the meaning of section 2 of Act V of 1861, or partly of one and partly of the other, as the State Government may determine; and shall consist of such number of officers and men who shall respectively receive such pay, leave, allowances, gratuities and pensions as the committee may from time to time after consultation with the District Magistrate and the inspector-General of Police, and subject to the final decision of the State Government, direct.

88. Relief of Committee from police charges:- (1) The State Government may relieve any committee of the whole or part of the cost of the police establishment, and may enter into a contract with the committee, on such terms as may be agreed on, that in consideration of such relief, the committee shall pay periodically a sum not exceeding the amount thereof, or undertake any services within the municipality to which the municipal fund can properly be applied and which are estimated to cost not more than the amount of the relief.

(2) When a committee has been relieved under this section of the whole or part of the cost of the police establishment which it is required to maintain, the State Government shall maintain such police establishment as it shall consider necessary, and the establishment so maintained may consist either of a body of the watchmen or of a part of the general police force under the State Government within the meaning of section 2 of Act V of 1861, or partly of one and partly of the other.

89. Appointment, liabilities and duties of municipal watchmen:- (1) If the establishment maintained under this chapter consists wholly or in part of watchmen, they:

- (a) shall be under the orders of the Superintendent of Police, subject to the general control of the District Magistrate;
- (b) shall be appointed and promoted, and shall be liable to dismissal, suspension, reduction or fine, under such rules as the State Government may, make in this behalf;
- (c) shall perform such duties as the State Government may, subject to the provisions of this Act, direct ; and
- (d) shall possess the same powers, be entitled to the same assistance, enjoy the same protection, be subject to the same responsibilities, and be liable to the same penalties, as if they were police officers enrolled under Act V of 1861.

(2) Any person obstructing any such watchmen in the discharge of his duties may be arrested without warrant by a police officer or by any such watchman.

90. Duties of municipal Police enrolled under Act V of 1861:- If the establishment maintained under this chapter or any portion thereof consist of part of the general police force, the State government may notwithstanding anything contained in Act V of 1861, or in any other Act for the time being in force, define, subject to the provisions of this Act, the duties which the officers and men of the establishment or such portion thereof may or may not be required to perform.

91. Powers and duties of police in respect of offences against Act and rules, and assistance to municipal authorities:- (1) Every member of a police establishment under this Act shall give immediate information to the committee of any offence committed against this Act or the rules or bye-laws, and shall be bound to assist all members, officers and servants of the committee in the exercise of their lawful authority.

(2) Every member of such police establishment may arrest any person committing in his view any offence against this Act or the rules or bye-laws--

- (a) if the name and address of the person are unknown to him, and
- (b) if the person declines to give his name and address, or if there is reason to doubt the accuracy of the name and address if given.

(3) A person arrested under this section may be detained until his name and address have been correctly ascertained :

Provided that no person so arrested shall be detained longer than may be necessary for bringing him before a magistrate except under the order of magistrate for his detention.

92. Police protection at fairs, etc.:- When special police protection is, in the opinion of the State government, requisite on the occasion of any fair, agricultural show or industrial exhibition, managed by a committee, or for the purpose of guarding houses evacuated on account of plague, the State Government may provide such protection and the committee shall pay the whole charge thereof or such portion of such charge as the State Government may consider equitably payable by it.

CHAPTER VII

Extinction and Prevention of Fire

93. Establishment and maintenance of fire-brigade:- ¹[For the prevention and extinction of fire, the committee may and, if the State Government so direct shall, establish and maintain a fire-brigade, and provide implements, machinery or means of communicating intelligence for the efficient discharge of their duties by the brigade.]

94. Power of fire brigade and other persons for suppression of fires: (1) On the occasion of a fire in a municipality any magistrate, the secretary of the committee, any member of committee, any member of a fire-brigade maintained by the committee then and there directing the operations of men belonging to the brigade, and ²[---]any police officer ³[not below the rank of Sub- Inspector may]--

- (a) remove or order the removal of any person who by his presence interferes with or impedes the operations for extinguishing the fire or for saving life or property;

- (d) cause mains and pipes to be shut off so as to give greater pressure of water in or near the place where the fire has occurred;
- (e) call on the persons in charge of any fire-engine to render such assistance as may be possible; and
- (f) generally, take such measures as may appear necessary for the preservation of life or property.

When any Government building is endangered by such a fire the officer of the Public Works Department for the time being in charge of the building may exercise the powers conferred on a magistrate by this sub-section.

(2) No person shall be liable to pay damages for any act done by him under sub-section (1) in good faith.

(3) Any damage done in the exercise of a power conferred or a duty imposed by this section shall be deemed to be damaged by fire within the meaning of any policy of insurance against fire.

1. Substituted for the old section by East Punjab Act 8 of 1949, section 2.

2. The brackets and words "If directed so to do by a Magistrate or the Secretary or a member of committee)" were omitted by Punjab Act 15 of 1926 section 4

3. Substituted for the words "above the rank of constable" by ibid.

95. Limitation on operation of chapter:- The powers conferred by the last foregoing section shall be subject to any regulations, conditions or restrictions which may be imposed by rule.

CHAPTER VIII

Water Supply

96.¹[Provision of water:- The committee may, and when the ²State Government so directs shall, provide the area under its control or any part thereof with a supply of wholesome water sufficient for public and domestic purposes.

(2) For the purpose of providing such supply within the municipality the committee shall cause such tanks, reservoirs, engines, pipes, taps, and other works as may be necessary to be constructed or maintained, whether within or without the municipality; and shall erect sufficient stand pipes or other conveniences for the gratuitous supply of water to the public.

(3) When required by the Medical Officer of Health, the committee shall arrange for the examination of water supplied for human consumption for the purpose of determining whether the water is wholesome.

97. Supply of water to connected premises:- (1) The committee may, on application by the owner of any building arrange for supplying water from the nearest main to the same for domestic purposes in such quantities as it deems reasonable, and may at any time limit the amount of water to be so supplied whenever it considers it necessary.

(2) No additional charge shall be payable in respect of such supply in any municipality in which a water tax is levied, but for water supplied in excess of the quantity to which such supply is under sub-section (1) limited, and in other municipalities for all water supplied under this section payment shall be made at such rate as may be fixed by the committee with the approval of the ³[State] Government.

Explanation.- A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not be deemed to include a supply-

- (a) for animals or for washing vehicles where such animals or vehicles are kept for sale or hire,
- (b) for any trade, manufacture or business,
- (c) for fountains, swimming baths, or for any ornamental or mechanical purpose,
- (d) for gardens or for purposes of irrigation,
- (e) for watering roads and paths,
- (f) for building purposes.

3. Substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

98. Supply of water for other than domestic purposes:- - (1) The committee may supply water for any purpose other than a domestic purpose, on receiving a written application specifying the purpose for which such supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed.

(2) For all water supplied under sub-section (1) payment shall be made at a rate not less than the rate prescribed under sub-section (2) of Section 97.]

(3) The committee may withdraw such supply at any time if it should appear necessary to do so in order to maintain a sufficient supply of water for domestic purposes.

99. Making connections with municipal water works. - (1) Where an application under Section 97 or Section 98 has been received, all necessary communication pipes and fittings shall be supplied by the committee and the work of laying and applying such communication pipes and fittings shall be executed by municipal agency under the committee's order ; but the cost of making any such connection and of all communication pipes and fittings so supplied and of all works so executed, shall be paid by the owner or the person making such application. The committee may either provide a meter and charge rent for the same or may require the owner or applicant to provide a meter of such size, material and description as it shall approve.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1) the committee may require any owner or person applying for a supply of water to provide all communication pipes and fittings and to carry out at his own cost under its supervision and inspection all the work of laying and applying such communication pipes and fittings.

100. Obligation of owner or occupier to give notice of waste of water. - Any owner or occupier of any building or land, in or on which water supplied under this Act is misused from negligence or other circumstances under his control, or used without permission in excess of the quantity fixed under Section 97 or Section 98, or in which the pipes mains or other works are out of repair to such an extent as to cause waste of water shall if he has knowledge thereof, be bound to give notice of the same to such officer as the committee may appoint in this behalf.

101. Cutting off of supply to premises. - If any person whose premises are supplied with water, neglects to pay the water-tax, or any sum payable under Section 97 or Section 98 when due, or to give notice as provided in the last proceeding section, or wilfully or negligently misuses or causes waste of water, the committee may cut off the supply of water from the said premises.

102. Power of the committee in respect of communications, etc. - For the purpose of providing or maintaining the water supply or of making or maintaining communications or connections with the mains, or generally for the purposes of this chapter, the committee shall have all powers which are conferred upon it in respect of drainage and the supply of gas by Sections 132 to 140.

149. Prohibition by committee of use of unwholesome water. - Should the committee, on the report of the ¹[medical officer or health,] consider that the water in any well, tank or other place is likely, if used for drinking, to engender or cause the spread of any dangerous disease, it may-

- (a) by public notice prohibit the removal or use of such water for drinking ;
- (b) by notice require the owner or person having control of such well, tank or place to take such steps as may be specified in the notice to prevent the public from having access to or using such water ; or
- (c) take such steps as it may, on the advise of the ²[medical officer of health] consider expedient to prevent the danger or spread of any such disease.

150. Penalty for selling food or drink not of the nature, substance or quality of the article demanded by the purchaser. - (1) Whoever sells, to the prejudice of any purchaser, any article of food or drink which is not of the nature, substance or quality of the article demanded by such purchaser, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees :

Provided that an offence shall not be deemed to be committed under this section in the following cases, that it to say-

- (a) where any matter or ingredient not injurious to health has been added to food or drink in order to the production or preparation of the same as an article of commerce in a state fit for carriage or consumption, and not fraudulently to increase the bulk, weight or measure or conceal the inferior quality thereof;
- (b) where food or drink is unavoidably mixed with some extraneous matter in the process of collection or preparation.

(2) In any prosecution under this section it shall be no defence to allege that the vendor was ignorant of the nature, substance or quality of the article sold by him, or that the purchaser, having bought such article only for analysis, was not prejudiced by the sale ;

³[Provided that this section shall not apply to those areas to which the State Government has directed or may direct that the ⁴[Punjab Pure Food Act, 1929 shall apply.]

- (b) in any case, the court may, if it is satisfied of the inability of the convict to earn a livelihood, owing to physical infirmity or debility and if the person-in-charge of any poor house in the municipality certifies that he is willing to receive him, direct that the convict be received into such poor house, after being released on entering into a bond, with or without sureties, to appear and receive sentence, when called upon during such period, not exceeding three years as the court may direct.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, an offence punishable under this section shall be cognizable ; and notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a court may take cognizance of such an offence in the manner provided by Section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1888.

152. Power over disorderly houses and prostitutes. - (1) The committee may by public notice, prohibit in any specified part of the municipality-

- (a) the keeping of a brothel ;
- (b) the residence of any person who practices prostitution.

(2) Whoever after the date specified in the public notice issued under sub-section (1)-

- (a) keeps or manages or acts or assists in the management of a brothel within the prohibited area ; or
- (b) being the tenant, lessee or occupier of any premises knowingly permits such premises or any part thereof to be used as a brothel or for the purposes of habitual prostitution within the prohibited area ; or
- (c) being the lessor or landlord, of any premises, or the agent to such lessor or landlord, lets the same or any part thereof, within the prohibited area with the knowledge that such premises or some part thereof are, or is used as a brothel or for the purposes of habitual prostitution, or is wilfully a party to the continued use of such premises as a brothel or for the purposes of habitual prostitution ; or
- (d) being a practising prostitute resides within the prohibited area ;

shall be punishable with imprisonment of either description, for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or with both, and in the case of a continuing offence with an additional fine not exceeding ten rupees for every day after the first during which the offence continues]

153. Brothel. - On the complaint of the committee or of three or more inhabitants of a municipality that a house within the limits of the municipality is used as a brothel or by disorderly persons of any description to the annoyance of the respectable inhabitants of the vicinity or that any such house is used as a brothel in the neighbourhood of cantonment or of an educational institution or boarding house or of any place of worship any magistrate of the 1st class having as such jurisdiction in the place where the house is situated may summon the owner or tenant of the house and on being satisfied that the house is so used and that it is a source of annoyance or offence to the neighbours, or that it is in the neighbourhood of a cantonment or of an educational institution or boarding-house, or of any place of worship, may order the owner or tenant to discontinue such use of it and if he shall fail to comply with such order within five days, may impose upon him a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees for every day thereafter that the house shall be so used.

Scavenging and House-scavenging

154. Removal and deposit of offensive matters. - The committee may fix places within or, with the approval of the District Magistrate, beyond the limits of the municipality for the deposit of refuse, rubbish or offensive matter of any kind or for the disposal of the dead bodies of animals, and may by public notice give directions as to the time, manner and conditions at, in and under which such refuse, rubbish or offensive matter or dead bodies of animals may be removed along any street and deposit at such places.

¹[154-A. Preparation to compost manure. - Where the State Government so requires it shall be the duty of the Committee to subject all dung to the process of making compost manure.

154-B. ²[Power to acquire, etc. - (1) Where the property in any dung vests in any person or class of persons other than the committee, the Committee, required under the last preceding section, shall acquire, either permanently or for such period as it may deem fit, the rights or interests in the dung belonging to the aforesaid persons, on payment of such compensation as the committee may consider reasonable and may assess in the manner prescribed.

³[(2) Where any such dung is requisitioned or acquired under this section the amount of compensation payable shall be determined in the manner and in accordance with the principle enumerated below:-

- (a) where the amount of compensation can be fixed by agreement, it shall be paid in accordance with such agreement ;
- (b) where no such agreement can be reached, the Committee and the person or persons as aforesaid shall appoint an arbitrator having knowledge of the price of the property or interest in the dung requisitioned or acquired:
- (c) at the commencement of the proceedings before the arbitrator, the committee and the person, to be compensated shall state what, in their respective opinion, is the fair amount of compensation ;
- (d) the arbitrator in making his award shall take into consideration the market value of the dung in the locality, the damage, if any, resulting from diminution of the profits accruing to the person or persons aforesaid and any other factor of a like nature ;
- (e) save as otherwise hereinafter provided in this Act or the rules made thereunder, nothing in any other law for the time being in force shall apply to arbitration under this section].

²[156-A. Spitting in places other than drains or receptacles provided. - Whoever, in a public place within the limits of a municipality to which the operation of this section has been extended by a notification by the State Government in this behalf, spits in a place other than a drain or a receptacle provided by the committee for this purpose shall, on conviction by a Magistrate of the first or second class, be punishable with fine which may extend to ³[five hundred rupees].

157. Nuisance by children and others. - Whoever permits any person under his control to whom the provisions of Sections 82, 83 and 84 of the Indian Penal Code are applicable to commit a nuisance upon any street or into any public sewer or drain or any drain communicating therewith shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ⁴[five hundred rupees.]

158. Definition of house scavenging. - The removal of filth, rubbish, ordure or other offensive matter from a privy, latrine, urinal, cess-pool or other common receptacle for such matter in or pertaining to house or building is called house scavenging.

159. Undertaking by committee of house-scavenging generally. - (1) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained with respect to the customary rights of sweepers the committee may at any time undertake the house-scavenging of any house or building on the application or with the consent of occupier.

⁵[(2) The committee may by public notice, except in cases to which Section 166 is applicable, undertake the house-scavenging of any house or buildings in the municipality from any date not less than two months after issue of the notice.]

(3) The occupier of any house or building affected by the notice may at any time, after the issue thereof, apply to the committee to exclude that house or building from the notice.

(4) The committee shall consider and pass orders upon every such application within six weeks of the receipt thereof, and may, by any such order, exclude such house or building from the notice.

(5) In deciding whether to exclude any house or building from the notice, the committee shall consider among other matters, the efficiency of the arrangements for house-scavenging made by the occupier (if any) and purpose to which he applies the matter dealt within house-scavenging.

160. Saving in favour of customary sweepers and of agriculturist. - Notwithstanding anything in the last forgoing section, the committee shall not except in accordance with the provisions of this chapter -

- (a) undertake the house-scavenging of any house or building in respect whereof any sweeper has a customary right to do such house-scavenging,
- (b) without the consent of the occupier undertake the house- scavenging of any house or building occupied by an agriculturist who himself cultivates land within municipal limits or in a village co-terminus therewith.

161. Continuance of house-scavenging once undertaken by committee. - When once the committee has undertaken the house-scavenging of any house-or building under this chapter, it may continue to perform such house-scavenging with or without the consent of the occupier for the time being of such house or building.

162. Obligation of committee to perform house-scavenging properly. - When the committee has undertaken the house-scavenging of any house or building, it shall be bound to perform the same properly, until it shall have relieved itself of the obligation by an order under Section 159, sub-section (4).

163. Powers of municipal servants for house-scavenging purposes. - The servants of the committee employed in house-scavenging may, at all reasonable times, do all things necessary for the proper performance of any house- scavenging undertaken by the committee.

164. Vesting in committee of collection from house-scavenging. - All matters removed by the servants of the committee in the course of house- scavenging shall belong to the committee.

165. Punishment of customary sweepers for negligence. - (1) Should a sweeper who has a customary right to do the house-scavenging of a house or building (hereinafter called the customary sweeper) fail to perform such house- scavenging in a proper way and at reasonable intervals, the occupier of the house or building or the committee may complain to a ¹[judicial magistrate].

(2) The magistrate receiving such complaint shall hold an enquiry, and, should it appear to him that the customary sweeper has failed to perform the house-scavenging of the house or building in a proper way or at reasonable intervals, he may impose upon such sweepers a fine which may extend to ten rupees, and, upon a second or any later conviction in regard to the same house or building, may also direct the right of the customary sweeper to do the house-scavenging of the house or building to be forfeited, and thereupon such right shall be forfeited accordingly.

166. Punishment of cultivators for failure to provide for proper house-scavenging. - (1) Should any person, who himself or any member of whose family residing with him cultivates land within municipal limits or in a village within two miles from the municipal limits fail to provide for the proper house-scavenging of any house or building occupied by him within the limits of the municipality, the committee may complain to a ¹[judicial magistrate].

(2) The magistrate receiving the complaint shall hold an enquiry, and, should it appear to him that such person has not provided for the proper house-scavenging of the house or building, he may pass an order empowering the committee to undertake the same, and thereupon the committee shall be entitled to undertake such house-scavenging.

Slaughter Places

167. Places for slaughter of animals for sale. - (1) The committee may, and shall when so required by the State Government, fix premises with the approval of the Deputy Commissioner, either within or without the limits of the municipality, for the slaughter of animals for sale, or of any specified description of such animals, and may, with the like approval, grant and withdraw licences for the use of such premises or, if they belong to the committee, charge rent or fees for the use of the same.

(2) When such premises have been fixed by the committee beyond municipal limits, it shall have the same power to make bye-laws for the inspection and proper regulation of the same as if they were within those limits.

(3) When any such premises have been fixed no person shall slaughter any such animal for sale within the municipality at any other place.

- (b) Where an order passed in appeal, under sub-section (11) so requires, be paid to the owner thereof or the person from whom, it is seized.
- (7) Where any property is seized or attached, under sub-section (3), the Committee may subject to the provisions of sub-section (8), order confiscation of such property.
- (8) No order for confiscating a property under sub-section (7) shall be made unless the owner of such property or the person from whom it is seized or attached is given,-
- (a) a notice in writing, informing him of the grounds on which it is proposed to confiscate the property;
 - (b) an opportunity of making a representation in writing, within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice against the grounds of confiscation; and
 - (c) a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter.
- (9) The order of any confiscation made under sub-section (7), shall not prevent the infliction of any punishment to which the person affected thereby is liable under this Act.
- (10) Any person aggrieved by such confiscation order made under sub-section (7), may, within one month from the date of communication to him of such order, appeal against it to the District Judge of the District in which such property is seized or attached.
- (11) On such appeal, the District Judge may, after giving an opportunity to the appellant and the respondent to be heard, direct the order to be stayed pending disposal of the appeal, or may modify; alter or annul the order and make any further order that he may think proper in the matter.
- (12) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), whenever any property is seized or attached pending confiscation under sub-section (7), the Committee or the District Judge shall have, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, any court, tribunal or other authority shall not have jurisdiction to make order with regard to the possession, delivery, disposal, release or distribution of such property.
- (13) Where any person is prosecuted of an offence for the contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), the burden of proving that he has not committed the said offence, shall be on such person.
- (14) Whoever being an employee of the Committee permits any body to encroach upon or abets to encroach upon any property specified in sub-section (1), shall on conviction be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both:
- Provided that no court shall take cognizance against such employee for the offence punishable under this sub-section except with the previous sanction of the Committee.
- (15) No investigation of an offence for contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (14), as the case may be, shall be made by an officer below the rank of a Deputy Superintendent of Police.

173. Power to permit occupation of public street and to remove obstruction. -

¹[(1) The committee may grant permission in writing, on such conditions as it may deem fit for the safety or convenience of persons passing by, or dwelling or working in the neighbourhood, and may charge fees for such permission, and may at its discretion withdraw the permission, to any person to-

- (a) place in front of any building any movable encroachment upon the ground level of any public street or over or on any sewer drain or water-course or any movable overhanging structure projecting into such public street at a point above the said ground level, the ¹[committee] may by notice to be delivered to the owner within six months from the completion of the building require the building to be altered in such manner as it may deem necessary, within the period specified in such notice:

Provided that the committee may, instead of requiring the alteration or demolition of any such building, accept by way of compensation such sum as it may deem reasonable:

Provided also that the committee shall require a building to be demolished or altered so far as is necessary to avoid contravention of a building scheme drawn up under section 192:

²[Provided further that if any notice is issued by the Executive Officer under this section on the ground that a building has been begun or has been erected in contravention of the terms of any sanction granted or in contravention of any bye-law made under section 190 the person to whom the notice is issued may, within fifteen days from the date of service of such notice, appeal to the committee, and subject to the provisions of sections 225, 232 and 236, the decision of the committee shall be final.

195-A. Power of committee to stay building operations:- (1) Where a building is begun as described in section 195 but not completed, the committee may ³[by notice, to be delivered to the owner within six months from the commencement of the building, or from the contravention of the terms of any sanction, or any bye-law framed under section 190, as the case may be] require the building operations to be discontinued from the date of the service of such notice.

(2) Any person failing to comply with the terms of such notice shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and when the non-compliance is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day after the first during which the non-compliance continues.

196. Compensation:- (1) No compensation shall be claimable by an owner for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of erection of any building.

1. The words "Executive Officer" shall be deemed to be Substituted for the word "Committee" (vide item 15, of Schedule II of Punjab Act II of 1931 as amended by Punjab Act 2 of 1934) in the case of those municipalities to which Punjab Act 2 of 1931, applies.

2. This proviso has been inserted by item 15 of Schedule II of Punjab Act 2 of 1931, as amended by Punjab Act 2 of 1934, in the case of those municipalities to which Punjab Act 2 of 1931, applies.

3. Substituted for the words "within six months by notice" by Punjab Act 15 of 1925, section 7.

(2) The committee shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for any damages or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building or part of a building except in so far as the prohibition is necessary under any bye-law.]

Provided that the committee shall make full compensation to the owner for any damage he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being set back, unless for a period of three years or more immediately preceding such notice the building has by reason of its being in ruinous or dangerous condition become unfit for human habitation or unless an order of prohibition issued under section 116 has been and still is in force in respect of such building.

¹[197. Power of committee to regulate the manufacture, preparation and sale of food and drink:- The committee may, and shall if so required by the ²[State] Government, by bye-law-

- (a) prohibit the manufacture, sale, or preparation or exposure for sale, of any specified articles of food or drink, in any place or premises not licensed by the committee;
- (b) regulate the hours and manner of transport within the municipality of any specified articles of food or drink, and prescribe the route by which such articles shall be carried;
- (c) prohibit the sale of milk, butter, ghee, curd, meat, game, fish and poultry by persons not licensed by the committee;
- (d) prohibit the import into the municipality for sale of milk, cream, butter, ghee, curd, meat, game, fish and poultry by person not licensed by the committee;
- (c) make regulations for the grant and withdrawal of licences and the levying of fees therefor under this section:

Provided that no person shall be punishable for breach of any bye-law made under clause (a) of this section by reason of the continuance of such manufacture, preparation or exposure for sale, or sale upon any premises which are, at the time of the making of such bye-law, used for such purpose until he has received from the committee six months' notice in writing to discontinue such manufacture, preparation or exposure for such sale, or such sale in such premises:

Provided further that nothing herein contained shall affect the operation of section 43 of the Punjab Laws Act, 1872, and the rules made thereunder.

³[197-A. Prohibition of possession or sale of wild birds and animals:- No wild bird or animal in respect of which any close time has been notified by the ⁴[State] Government under section 3 of the Wild Birds and Animals Protection Act, 1912, shall whether dead or alive be possessed or sold during such close time within any

 5. Substituted for the words "Health Officer" by Punjab Act 2 of 1923, Section 57

209. Refusal to suffer inspection under Sections 205 to 208. Whoever, in contravention of Section 205 or Section 206 or Section 207 or Section 208 or Section 211, refuses to suffer inspection of any premises, food, drink, drug, animals, weight, measure or instrument for weighing, or in contravention of Section 207, clause (2) refuses to produce any weight, measure or instrument for weighing to which he has access, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ¹[five hundred rupees.]

210. Search for inflammable or explosive material in excess of authorized quantity. (1) The Committee ²[or Executive Officer] may authorize any person to enter upon at any reasonable time and inspect any house or building which is suspected to contain petroleum, explosive or other inflammable material, in excess of the quantity permitted to be kept in such house or building under the provisions of this Act or of any rule, bye-law or public notice made or published thereunder.

(2) Should any such excess quantity of such material be discovered, it may be seized and held subject to such order as a magistrate may pass with respect to it.

(3) If the magistrate decide that the material seized was stored in the house or building contrary to the provisions of this Act or of any rule, bye-law or public notice made or published thereunder, he shall pass an order confiscating the same.

(4) Subject to any general rules for the time being applicable thereto, the material confiscated may be sold by order of the magistrate and the proceeds, after defraying the expenses of such sale, shall be credited to the municipal fund.

(5) No order of confiscation under this section shall operate to prevent any other criminal or civil proceedings to which the person storing the material in excessive quantity may be liable.

211. Power of entry for purpose of preventing spread of disease. (1) The ³[Medical Officer of Health or any other officer authorised by the committee ⁴[or executive officer] may enter, at any time, after 'three hours' notice into any building or premises in which any infectious disease is reported or suspected to exist, for the purpose of inspecting such building or premises.]

(2) No such inspection shall be made except in the hours between sunrise and sunset.

212. General explanation. The committee ⁵[or Executive Officer] may authorize persons to exercise the powers of entry conferred by the foregoing sections of this chapter either generally in regard to all buildings and lands or particularly in regard to specified buildings and lands or classes of buildings and lands.

1. Substituted by Punjab Act 8 of 1974, Section 9

2. The insertion of the words "or Executive Officer" (vide item 16, Schedule II, Punjab Act 2 of 1931) is for those Municipalities to which Punjab Act 2 of 1931, applies

3. Substituted by Punjab Act 3 of 1933, Section 83

4. The words "Executive Officer" shall be deemed to be substituted for the word "committee" (vide item 12, Schedule II, Punjab Act 2 of 1931) in the case of the municipalities to which Punjab Act 2 of 1931, applies

5. The words "Executive Officer" shall be deemed to be substituted for the word "committee" (vide item 12, Schedule II, Punjab Act 2 of 1931) in the case of the municipalities to which Punjab Act 2 of 1931, applies

213. Precautions to observe in entering dwellings. When any building used as a human dwelling is entered under this Act, due regard shall be paid to the social and religious sentiments of the occupiers : and before any apartment in the actual occupancy of any woman, who according to custom does not appear in public, is entered under this Act, notice shall be given to her that she is at liberty to withdraw, and reasonable facility shall be afforded to her for withdrawing.

Notice and Consequences of Non-compliance

214. Reasonable time for compliance to be fixed. When any notice under this Act requires any act to be done for which no time is fixed by this Act, it shall fix a reasonable time for doing the same.

¹ 215. Authentication, service and validity of notices. (1) Every notice issued by a committee under this Act or under any rule or bye-law shall be in writing, signed by the president, vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary, or by the members of any sub-committee specially authorised by the committee in that behalf, ²[and every such notice and every order made under Section 193] may be served on the person to whom it is addressed, or delivered or left at his usual place of abode or business with some adult male member or servant of his family or if it cannot be so served, may be affixed to some conspicuous part of this place of abode or business.

³[Provided that such notice may be signed by the Medical Officer of Health when it is issued by the committee under any section of this Act under which power may be delegated to the Municipal Officer of Health under clause (b) of Section 33 and has been so delegated.]

(2) When the place of abode or business of the person to whom notice is addressed is not within the limits of the municipality, the notice may be served by posting it in a registered cover addressed to his usual place of abode.

(3) If the owner of any property has no place of abode or business within the municipality, every such notice addressed to him as such owner may be served on the occupier.

(4) When the place of abode or business of the occupier of any property is not known every such notice addressed to him as such occupier may be served by affixing it to some conspicuous part of the property.

(5) No notice issued by the committee under this Act or under any rule or bye-law shall be invalid for defect of form.

1. In the case of those municipalities to which the provisions of Punjab Act 2 of 1931, apply, this section has been amended (vide item 17, Schedule II, Punjab Act 2 of 1931) as follows:-
"215(1) Every notice issued under this Act or under any rule or by its Executive Officer or by the person authorised by the committee or by the Executive Officer, shall be in writing signed by the Executive Officer or by any person authorized in this behalf, and every such notice and every order made under Section 193 may be served on the person to whom it is addressed or delivered or left at his usual place of abode or business with some adult male member or servant of his family or if it cannot be so served may be affixed to some conspicuous part of his place of abode or business."
 2. Inserted by Punjab Act 2 of 1923, Section 58
 3. Added by Punjab Act 2 of 1923, Section 58. [The proviso shall, however, be deemed to be omitted in the case of those municipalities to which the provisions of Punjab Municipal (Executive Officer) Act, apply, see item No. 17 of Schedule II, Punjab Act 2 of 1931]

216. Service when owners and occupiers are different persons. Whenever it is provided by this Act that any notice may be given to the owner or occupier of any land or building, and the owner and occupier are different persons, such notice shall be given to the one of them primarily liable to comply with such notice, and in case of doubt to both of them:

Provided that in any such case, where there is no owner resident within the municipality, the delivery of such notice to the occupier shall be sufficient.

217. Mode of giving notice to owners or occupier of property. When any notice is under the provisions of this Act to be given to or served on the owner or occupier of any property and he is unknown, it may be given or served -

- (a) by delivering a written notice to some person on the property, or should there be no person on the property to whom it can be delivered, by affixing it to some conspicuous part of the property; or
- (b) by putting into the post a pre-paid letter containing a written notice and addressed by the description of the "owner or "occupier" of the property naming it in respect of which the notice is given, without further name or description.

218. Publication of public notices. Every public notice given by a committee under this Act or any rule or bye-law shall be published by proclamation or in such other manner as the State Government may, by rule, direct.

219. Penalty for disobedience of orders of committees. Whoever disobeys any lawful direction or prohibition given by the committee by public notice under this Act or any written notice lawfully issued by it thereunder, or fails to comply with the conditions subject to which any permission was given by the committee to him under those powers shall, if the disobedience or omission is not an offence punishable under any other section, be punishable with fine which may extend to ¹[five hundred rupees], and in the case of a continuing breach, with a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues:

Provided that when the notice fixes a time within which a certain act is to be done and no time is specified in this Act, it shall rest with the magistrate to determine whether the time so fixed was a reasonable time within the meaning of this Act.

²219-A. Compensation for damage. Every person convicted of an offence under this Act on account of any act or omission, shall notwithstanding any punishment to which he may have been sentenced for such offence, pay compensation, the amount of which shall be determined by the magistrate before whom he was so convicted, to the committee for any damage that may have occurred to any property of the committee, in consequence of such act or omission.]

1. Substituted by Punjab Act 8 of 1974, Section 9
2. Added by Punjab Act 2 of 1923, Section 59

220. Power of committee in the event of non-compliance. Whenever the terms of any notice have not been complied with, the committee may, after six hours' notice, by its officers, cause the act to be done.

221. Penalty for obstruction. Any person wilfully obstructing the committee, or any officer or servant of the committee, or any person authorised by the committee, in the exercise of the powers conferred by this Act, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ¹[five hundred rupees.]

222. Recovery of costs of execution. (1) Where, under this Act, the owner or occupier of property is required by the committee to execute any work and default has been made in complying with the requirement, and the committee has executed the work, the committee may recover the cost of the work from the person in default.

(2) As between themselves and the committee both owner and occupier shall be deemed to be in default for the purposes of this section, but that one of them shall be deemed to be primarily in default upon whom, as between landlord and tenant, the duty of doing the required act would properly fall either in pursuance of the contract of tenancy or by- law.

(3) When the person primarily in default is the owner and the committee has recovered the whole or any part of the cost from the occupier, or he has paid the same upon its demand, he may deduct the sum so recovered or paid from the rent from time to time becoming due from him to the owner, or otherwise recover it from such owner:

Provided that no occupier shall be required to pay under sub-section (3) any sum greater than the amount for the time being due from him to the owner, either in respect of rent due at the date of such demand as aforesaid or thereafter accruing, unless he has refused on application to him by the committee truly to disclose the amount of his rent and the name and address of the person to whom it is payable; but the burden of proof that the sum so demanded by the committee from the occupier exceeds the rent due at the time of the demand, or which has since accrued due, shall lie on the occupier.

(4) All money recoverable by a committee under this section may be recovered either by suit or on application to a magistrate having jurisdiction within the municipality, by distress and sale of the movable property of the person from whom the money is recoverable, and if payable by the owner of the property shall, until it is paid, be a charge on the property.

(5) Nothing in this section affect any contract between an owner and on occupier.

²[(6) Where under Section 113 or Section 114 the committee has executed any work, the cost thereof may be recovered from the owner or occupier in connection with work done under Section 113, and from the owner in connection with work done under Section 114, in the manner herein provided for the recovery of cost of work from a defaulting owner or occupier and subject to the provisions herein contained].

1. Substituted by Punjab Act 8 of 1974, section 9
2. Added by Punjab Act 2 of 1923, Section 61

223. Relief to agents and trustees. (1) When any person, by reason of his receiving ¹[or being entitled to receive] the rent of immovable property as agent or ²[trustee] of a person or society, would, under this Act, be bound for discharge any obligation imposed by this Act, on the owner of the property ³[-] for the discharge of which money is required, he shall not be bound to discharge the obligation unless he has, or but for his own improper act or default might have had, in his hand funds belonging to the owner sufficient for the purpose.

(2) The burden of proving the fact entitling an agent or trustee to relief under this section shall lie on him.

(3) When any agent or trustee has claimed and established his right to relief under this section, the committee may give him notice to apply to the discharge of such obligation as aforesaid the first moneys which shall come to his hands on behalf or for the use of the owner, and should he fail to comply with such notice, he shall be deemed to be personally liable to discharge such obligation.

Payment of Compensation by the Committee

224. Payment of compensation. (1) The committee may make compensation out of the municipal fund to any person sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in the committee, its officers and servants under this Act, and shall make such compensation where the damage was caused by the negligence of the committee, its officer or servants and the person sustaining the damage was not himself in default in the matter in respect of which the power was exercised.

⁴[(2) Should any dispute, for the settlement of which no express provision is made by any other section, arise touching the amount of any compensation which the committee is by this Act required to pay or empowered to receive for injury to or in respect of any building or land, it shall be settled in such manner as the parties may agree, or in default of agreement, in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, with reference to the acquisition of and payment of compensation for land for public purposes so far as it can be made applicable.]

Appeals From Orders, etc.,

225. Appeals from order of committee. (1) Any person aggrieved-

(a) by the refusal of a committee under Section 193 to sanction the erection or re-erection of a building, or

⁵(b) by a notice from a committee under Section 171 requiring a street to be drained, levelled, paved, flagged, metalled or providing with proper means of lighting, or declaring a street to be public street, or ⁶(by a notice

⁷[x x x x]

(2) The appellate authority may, if it shall think fit, extend the period allowed by sub-section (1) for appeal.

(3) The order of the appellate authority confirming, setting aside or modifying the refusal, notice or order appealed from shall be final;

Provided that the refusal, notice or order shall not be modified or set aside until the appellant and the committee have had reasonable opportunity of being heard.

226. Prosecution to be suspended in certain cases. When any order of the kind specified in the Section 107, Section 123 and Section 219 is subject to appeal, and an appeal has been instituted against it, all proceedings to enforce such order and all prosecutions for any breach thereof shall be suspended pending the decision of the appeal, and if such order is set aside on appeal, disobedience thereto shall not be deemed to be an offence.

227. Appeal from certain orders. Every order of the forfeiture under Sections 165 and every order under Section 166 or Section 210 shall be subject to appeal to the next superior court, but shall not be otherwise open to appeal.

Offences and Prosecution

228. Authority for prosecution. Unless otherwise expressly provided, no court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act or any rule or any bye-law thereunder, except on the complaint of or upon information received from the
